Tuition is $45 per class each month for student learners and $15 per class each month for adult learners. When available, NHME's instruments may be rented for $15 each month. Tuition is due at the beginning of each month or payable by lump sum at the beginning of the semester or term. When available, payments can be made securely online via credt card or PayPal. If using a personal check, please make the check out to: National Homeschool Music Ensembles or NHME. If using personal checks, please send correspondence to the address above. NHME reserves the right to place new students in its ensembles based on performance skills presented at their first rehearsal. Please arrive early to class. Please also keep us informed of any planned absences. Participants in NHME activities are expected to act with respect towards others, dress appropriately, and to abstain from illegal, inappropriate, or disruptive behavior. As a private organization, NHME reserves the right to dismiss participants/students at our discretion for noncompliance. In the event of unsafe, inclement weather (snow/ice), NHME may cancel classes. Notification will be made by group email message (if available). In addition, we follow the Tecumseh and Ann Arbor public schools' closings and delays for weather. In the event of injury, casualty, or medical emergencies, all reasonable or necessary efforts will be made by responders to secure the safety and well being of students which may include administering first aid / CPR, notifying local law enforcement, and/or requesting fire / ambulance services. NHME will contact parents / guardians and others as listed and by means as described in the enrollment-registration form.
